Call to Worship

Leader: The day has come, and we are together; let us face bravely into the winds of God.
People: We are listening for the sounds from heaven; we hear the rush of a violent wind.
 Leader: Surely God is in this place! How manifold are the works of God!
People: The Spirit of God fills us with amazement. God sets us afire with wonder and awe.
 Leader: We will sing to God as long as we live; we will celebrate the gifts of God.
People: Together we are members of one body; all have been baptized by the Spirit.

Call to Confession

Liturgist: Before the wonders of God, we live too often as bored and skeptical people. We doubt what we cannot see and resist what we do not understand. We hide behind closed doors while a needy world awaits our witness. The God who created us calls us back into a relationship of trust and obedience.

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

God of Majesty and Power, we tremble when we become aware of who you are. All worlds are in your hands. Who are we that you should visit us or expect something from us? We confess our preference for the predictable. We admit our resistance to the Spirit. We acknowledge our misuse of gifts you grant to us. We prefer our divisions to your unity. Forgive us, God of hosts, that we may forgive. Draw us back into a right relationship with you, so that we may remember to share your forgiveness with the world. Amen.

Leader: The wisdom of God has been shared with us; re-creation and renewal have been offered us.

People: O God, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all.

Leader: In Christ, we are one body, united and uniting. Varied gifts are preparing us for service.

People: The waters of baptism have drawn us together; the Spirit is given to each for the common good.

Leader: The Spirit has visited us and prepared us to dream; wind and fire have equipped us to witness.

People: We have been filled with the Holy Spirit; let us dare to speak and act as inspired people. (Amen! Amen!)
